ABOUT ANELE

Bold, side-splittingly funny and always raring to go – Anele Mdoda needs little introduction. Together with her hand-picked Club crew, she's Joburg's wake-up call, infusing weekday mornings with her non-stop energy and razor-sharp wit.

Her career started as a radio presenter at UP (University of Pretoria) in 2004, where she studied Politics and International Relations. After a stint at 5FM, she joined 947 where you can hear her today as host of the breakfast drive show - 'Anele and the Club on 947'.

Her television career kicked off in 2009 as co-host of 'SA's Got Talent'. Since then, Anele has become a well-known television personality as host of 'Dream School SA', 'Tongue In Cheek', 'Celebrity Game Night' and her own daily talk-show 'Real Talk With Anele', which won a South African Film and Television Award (SAFTA) in 2017 for Best Talk Show. Her most recent project is the new African lifestyle show 'The Buzz', where she shares her views on various topics with other female co-hosts from all over Africa. She has twice (2019 and 2020) interviewed other A-listers on the red carpet for The Academy Awards as broadcast on M-Net.

An author and a mother, she is passionate about cooking and connecting with her audience on all platforms. She always gives more than 100% of herself in everything she undertakes, and to top it all off, she can perform any of Beyonce's songs with all of the passion of Queen B herself.
