ABOUT EB INGLIS

Born and bred in Cape Town; EB Inglis has nearly two decades of experience in the entertainment industry in various spheres. He's a actor, singer/songwriter, music producer and stage performer. As a broadcaster he has worked at numerous radio stations before joining Kfm 94.5 in 2020 as the new weekday lunchtime and Saturday Breakfast host. He also runs his own production studio, EB Inglis MUSIC.

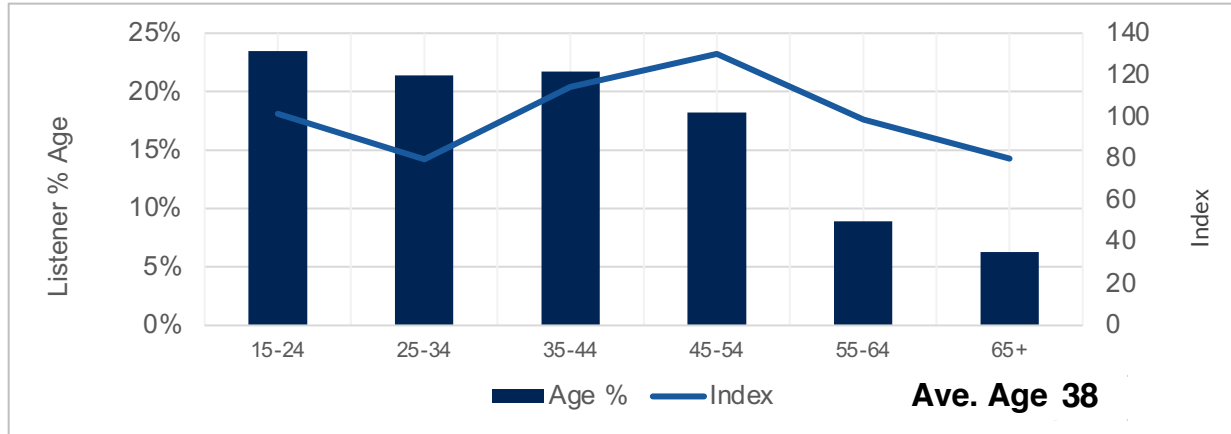

EB has performed on stage in various music and theatre productions at The Artscape Theatre, Baxter Theatre, Barnyard and others, and has shared the stage with the likes of The Black Ties, Chad Saaiman, Lloyd Jansen, Keeno Lee, Lucy Tops, Romaine Barreiro, O'Ryan Winter and Idols winner Sasha Lee.

EB is also a versatile voice artist and accomplished MC, including hosting the Chris Brown Carpe Diem Tour. As an actor, he's performed in numerous TV commercials. But his passion is independent film, which sees him collaborating with some of the best upcoming South African talent.

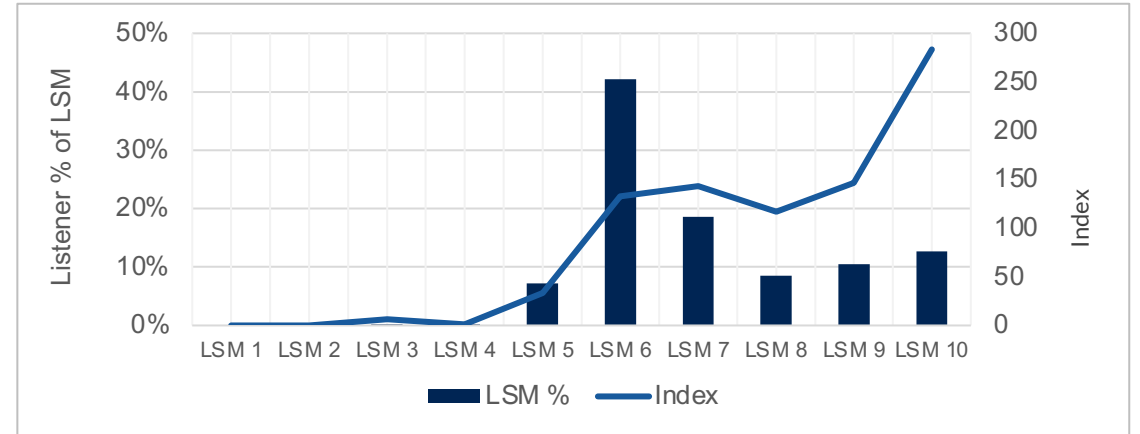

Through his radio workshops and vlogs, EB aims to use his experience and social media influence to educate aspiring radio and music professionals and grow the local entertainment industry.
